Purpose of the Course

Course Description:

English 170, Haiku & Zen Aesthetics, is a one-credit creative writing workshop modeled after haiku writer groups. This workshop meets weekly to consider Japanese Zen aesthetics and how they apply to reading and writing of haiku in English. We will have frequent KUKAI competitions throughout the semester. Our primary texts will be Zen Art for Meditation, The Wordless Poem by Eric Amann, recent issues of MAYFLY magazine, School's Out by Randy Brooks and Bare Necessities by Francine Banwarth. Students will read and write about Japanese Zen aesthetics and the haiku tradition and try approaches to composing their own original haiku in English based on tenets of Zen aesthetics.

Course Learning Goals, Outcomes & Objectives:

Writing Goals—The primary goal of this course is to plan, develop, and complete a haiku collection with the support and critical response of peers. The secondary goal is to have fun sharing the creative process in a small workshop atmosphere. We will celebrate the variety of voices and experiences that will be evident in the projects. We will read and analyze work in the Japanese aesthetics and English haiku traditions.

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

This is a traditional once-a-week course. This course emphasizes a performance learning approach in which students read, share responses, write and perform their work for others. Students will engage as readers and writers exploring Zen aesthetics and the haiku traditions.

(1) For the startup for this class, to the following Podcast and enjoy listening to it. After listening to it, write about your realizations or questions about haiku.

< <https://www.haikuchronicles.com/podcasts/2012/e23-tea-talk-haiku-a-way-of-life> > (26 minutes)

Also answer these questions in your reflection—how can haiku be a means of learning to notice, observe or be more aware of your surroundings? How is haiku an art of awareness? Is haiku a way of life? What is that way of life? The haiku life?

Course MOODLE Page & Web Site

Resources and the grade book are provided through Millikin University course management software, Moodle. There is also a course web site featuring a continuously updated assignment blog and sample of student performance learning at:

<https://www.brooksbookshaiku.com/MillikinHaiku/courses/zen-spring2025/index.html>

The course requires frequent submissions of written responses and informal writing at attachments (DOC or RTF file format) by email to me at <rbrooks@millikin.edu>.

ALL assignments are to be turned in as digital files attached by email. (Use your SAVE AS function and choose “Rich Text Format” or “DOC” for digital files emailed to <rbrooks@millikin.edu>. Please use RTF or DOC or PDF formats or paste your work directly into email. Ask for help on formats if needed.

E-mail – The email system on campus is a vital communications tool and may be used by the student, professor and other school officials in the delivery of information and instructions. Students are responsible for routinely checking their Millikin University e-mail for schedule changes, assignments, and/or other messages from the professor(s) or university representatives. Email addresses other than students’ Millikin email addresses will NOT be used for communication purposes.

COURSE SCHEDULE & PLANS

Course Organization

See a more detailed schedule at the end of this syllabus and online with the course syllabus blog located at:

<https://www.brooksbookshaiku.com/MillikinHaiku/courses/zen-fall2026/assignments.html>

The course schedule is merely a guideline. The professor reserves the right to alter course content, class assignments/activities, and/or dates, as deemed necessary. The professor will announce assignments and due dates in class, via email, or course web site. The student is responsible for attending class to know what assignments will be required and when. Announcements in class or via email will take precedence over the written schedule.

Weekly Schedule & Assignments

1. Sharing and discussing favorite haiku from the reading assignments (emailed responses due midnight Sunday before the class).
2. Critical reading discussion on Zen aesthetics and haiku poetics.
3. Kukai selection of favorites by each other.

When referring to a haiku by any author, please use the following means of citation. Always type the entire haiku (DO NOT CHANGE CAPITAL LETTERS or WORD SPACING!). Then include the author and an abbreviation of the publication source. For example, here is a haiku by Peggy Lyles from her book, To Hear the Rain:

on hands and knees
I follow a toad
down the parsley row

Jeff Ingram, Mayfly 59, 16

HOW LEARNING WILL BE ASSESSED

Assignments & Semester Grading Weight

All assignments are emailed to Dr. Brooks at <rbrooks@millikin.edu> and are due by midnight on Monday each week.

Informal Reader Response Writing & Haiku Writing	(each week) 10 points
Original Haiku Writing	(each week) 10 points
Haiku Collection	100 points
Haiku Collection Author's Preface.....	10 points
Final Reading	10 points
Final Reflection (creative works self-evaluation)	10 points

Assignment Grades:

Informal Quick-Writes, Quizzes, Email Responses, Exercises & Planning Work informal assignments will be graded with a simple check-system (10) (5) or (0) indicating completion of the assignment. These grades indicate that (10 = you have done an excellent, thoughtful writing), (5 = you have completed most of the assignment adequately, or (0 = you have not fulfilled the assignment).

Course grades will be determined as follows:

(A+=100, A=95, A-=90, B+=88, B=85, B-=80, C+=78, C=75, C-=70, D+=68, D=65, F=0)

Grading Scale & Methods:

ALL assignments are to be turned in as digital files by email. (Use your SAVE AS function and choose "Rich Text Format" or "DOC" for digital files emailed to <rbrooks@millikin.edu>. Please use RTF or DOC formats. Ask for help on formats if needed.

Formal Assignments:

The other assignments are considered formal which means that they should be printed, carefully edited, revised, prepared and designed for maximum effectiveness with the intended audience. Proper citation of sources and a works cited section is expected.

A = "exceptional" or "outstanding" work

B = "above average" Effort was put into the work above and beyond what was required.

C = "average" Note that "average" does not mean good or bad, just average as in like everyone else's work. The students completed the basic requirements as laid out in the directions.

D = "below average" This effort did not even meet the minimum requirements or was sub-par.

F = "below college standards" Very little effort went into the assignment.

Course grades will be determined as follows:

(A+=100, A=95, A-=90, B+=88, B=85, B-=80, C+=78, C=75, C-=70, D+=68, D=65, F=0)

Attendance & Participation

I am very strict about attendance. You are allowed three absences without penalty. After three absences, you are considered to be excessively absent and five per cent of your semester grade will be subtracted from your semester score for each day of excessive absence. Of course, extended illness will be exempt to this absence policy, usually resulting in an incomplete for the semester.

Please be respectful to your faculty and fellow students by not carrying on conversations that are not a part of class discussion. Be prepared for class and group meetings. Please, no children or disruptive interruptions. Please turn cell phones to silent or vibrate mode and properly dispose of your trash by the end of class.

Missed Assignments

Students are required to submit all assignments by email midnight before the class discussion. If your assignment is late, it is an F for formal assignments or a minus for informal assignments. Note that F's and minuses are averaged as 0% grades.
