

Upside Down

a mad-verse half-kasen
July 2017

Global Haiku Traditions
Millikin University

by

Randy Brooks
Sean Dial
Zachary Dilbeck
Brandon Suwanpratest
Hailey Sharp
Joshua Mysliwiec
Jennifer Yeakley
Hailey Sharp
Thomas Friend
Norman Mears

Upside Down

the breeze pushes
raindrops
on the tire swing

(JY)

spinning in circles
wide spread arms

(HS)

the world
upside down
slowly turning

(TF)

tortoise running
faded dark street

(NM)

enough moonlight
for freeze tag
with the cousins (RMB)

she thinks she can make it

(SD)

coconut cream pie
her meringue
with golden tears

(RMB)

cried desperately
in June

(NM)

the sound of the dog
under four
new tires

(TF)

thanking the lucky stars
he survives

(HS)

catching fireflies
in her palm
setting them free

(JY)

baby sleeps
tune of crickets plays

(JM)

the heavens open
thunder rolls
windows shaking

(HS)

bass music
drive by shooting

(NM)

lights and sirens
cuffs are on
justice is served

(SD)

great stories being created one day they'll be told

(BS)

the old dog growls
as they pass
under the cherry blossoms

(JY)

Marshall Dillion rides
into the sunset

(TF)

• • •