Freedom's Song

singing freedom's song
hush child
or they will hear you

jj

the train honks
as people sleep

kp

biker hit
outside my door
children crying

dlr

clouds darken
the neighborhood

rmb

large misty moon
peeks through clouds
beaming down

lr

basking in light
the painting

mm

he frowns at his likeness
it smiles back

a perfect match
for her seashell

rmb

makes a necklace long and pretty
mother in law didn't want

passed down
I see regret

kp

apple trees
speak no evil
of the hands that pick

blood red lips
taking a bite

kg

when we kiss
I see birds
flying over the moon

a first step
climbing a tree

right foot next pulling

tug of war
on green grass

jj

Dahila, Dahila
red and fluffy
to the north

a single petal drifts
down stream
