

L.A. Noire: A Mad-verse Half-Kasen
by Global Haiku Traditions class, Millikin University May 1, 2018

L.A. Noire

peaceful day
of watching the snow
fall . . . from the couch

DB

I'm curled up
with a warm cup of chai

AH

staring outside
tickling my toes
the orange cat purring

GR

the fire burning
on Christmas Eve

RS

burning tree
smoke pours over
a crescent moon

WS

house catches fire
arson

JP

L.A. Noire
an arson detective
lights a cigarette

WS

undercover informant
our best asset

RS

clicking and clacking
her shoes strike the ground invisible

GR

femme fatale
tear gas perfume

AH

eyes watering
when he walks by
too much cologne

gym locker room
doused in AXE

ER

familiar face
crescent moon
gives me a half smile

AH

as i glance afar
I see my future

RS

id kiss her
but...
she isn't my future

JP

my future is sitting at the bar

EC

pretty in pink she smells of
cherry blossoms

AB

she stands to leave
my window closing
